

December 2, 2015

Received Chairman's Award from the Association of Century-old Businesses in recognition of excellence among corporations with over 100 years of history.

Okaya & Co., Ltd. received the Chairman's Award from the Association of Century-old Businesses at the first recognition of corporations with over 100 years of history.

The recognition of corporations with over 100 years of history is a system to recognize those corporations that have been contributing to communities in terms of business continuity, employment, and social contribution activities, etc., from among long-established corporations with over 100 years of history since their foundation. It was held as the first recognition and the assessment was conducted on corporations within the jurisdiction of the Chubu Bureau of Economy, Trade and Industry. The award ceremony was held on December 1, 2015.

Our company will continue to make company-wide efforts to increase our corporate value, while treasuring the bonds with society and community.

Provided by: Nikkan Kogyo Shimbun, Ltd.